

Early Rimington Rimington Deeds – Late 12 Century to Mid 17th Century – Part 2 28 to 55

No 28. Hen.III – Ed. I

Know present and future that I, William son of William Clerk of Rimington, have confirmed to Walter son of Phillipp de Rimington all the land which Adam de Lelay gave to Phillipp, his father, in Rimington, and confirmed by his charter; and for which he received his homage, viz: the half carucate of land in which he, Walter, dwells, and which Phillipp, his father, reclaimed out of the waste. And the third part of Hocroft. To hold to him and his heirs, of me and my heirs, for his homage and service, in fee and heredity, and doing, for the life of Dionisa, his mother, as much foreign service as pertains to half a carucate of land where xij makes a knight's fee. And after the death of the said Dionisa, the said Walter and his heirs shall render to me and my heirs yearly twelve pence for the said half carucate, and sixpence for the third part of Hocroft, viz., nine pence at Pentecost and nine pence at Martinmas, for every service due to me and my heirs, and doing the aforesaid foreign service. And if it shall please the said Walter and his heirs to grind at the mill of Rimington, they shall grind at five per cent; but if they do not wish to, let them grind where they please. And I, William son of William clerk will warrant to the said Walter, as the charter of Adam de Lelay, by which Phillipp his father formerly had that tenement, shews. Witnesses:- Richard Tempest, Hugh de Halton, Robert de Percy, John de Boulton, Alan de [?Horton], Nigell de Stokeld, Richard Scot, Hugh Clerk, John Badewin, Adam son of Elyas, Ysaac son of John.

No 29. Hen.III – Ed. I

Know present and future that I, William son of William Clerk of Rymington, have released to Walter son of Phillipp de Rymington and his heirs eighteen pence of rent which he pays me yearly, viz., twelve pence for the half carucate of land in which the said Walter dwells, and six pence for the land of Hocroft. But so that the said Walter and his heirs shall hold the said half carucate of land and the land of Hocroft of me and my heirs free from all servicees, except as much foreign services as pertains to the half carucate of land in the town of Rymington. And I, William, will warrant the said lands, with the said rent. Witnesses:- Dominus John de Knol then Rector of the Church of Gyselburne, Robert de Percy, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, Walter de Montealto, Alan de Horrtion, Elyas de Pathenhal, Hugh clerk of Rymington, William son of Walter of the same place, Adam son of Elyas of the same place, Robert son of Walter of the same place, William Clerk.

No 30. Hen. III – Ed. I

Know present and future that I, William son of William Clerk of Rymington, have granted to Walter son of Phillipp de Rymington, for his homage and service, all my land, without withholding, in a certain culture called Hallstede in the field of Rymington; and besides this a plot of land, as much as pertains to my carucate of land at the head of my crofts, which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the common exit of the town; and two strips above Sandilands which lie between the land of William Clerk and the land of Robert Rayneville; and a plot of land above Thorneberch, as much as belongs to my carucate which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the common meadow; and a plot of land at Selgile, which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the before named Selgyle; and besides this all my part, without withholding, of the meadow which lies between the river of Rymington and the mill pond, viz., the fourth part of that meadow; and besides this twelve pence of yearly rent, viz., six pence from Ysaac son of John and his heirs, payable at Martinmas, which six pence the said Ysaac used to pay me yearly; and three pence from the heirs of Adam de Westby for the assart of Ketell in the field of Rimington, which they used to pay me, William, at Martinmas; and three pence from Adam de Hologyle and his heirs, payable at the same term, which he was bound to pay me. To hold to him, his heirs or assigns, of me and my heirs, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly yo me a penny for all secular services. And I, William, will warrant.

Witnesses:- Roger Tempest, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, John de Percy, Alan de Horton, William Tempest, Hugh Clerk of Rymington, William son of Walter of the same place, William Baudewin, William Clerk.

No 31. Hen. III – Ed. I

Know present and future that I, William son of William Clerk of Rymington, have granted to Walter son of Phillip de Rymington, for his homage and service, all my land, without withholding, in a certain culture which is called Hallstede in the field of Rymington; and besides this a plot of land, as much as pertains to my carucate of land at the head of my crofts, which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the common exit of the town; and two strips above Sandilandes which lie between the land of William Clerk and the land of Robert Raynevile; and a plot of land above Thorneberch, as much as belongs to my carucate which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the common meadow; and a plot of land at Selgile, which lies between the land of William de Roucester and the before named Selgile; and besides this all my part without withholding, of the meadow which lies between the river of Rymington and the mill pond, viz., the fourth part of that meadow; and besides this twelve pence of yearly rent, viz., six pence from Ysac son of John and his heirs, payable at Martinmas, which six pence the said Ysac used to pay me yearly; And also three pence from the heirs of Adam de Westby for the assart of Ketell in the field of Rimington, which they used to pay me at Martinmas; and also three pence from Adam de Hologyle and his heirs, payable at the same term, which he used to pay me; futher all the part of my carucate of land in a certain culture calle Alfhov, beginning at the stones of the Bretstrete in length up to the River of Twistleton[*], in breadth indeed as I William, formerly held the same; So that it shall be lawful for the said Walter to enclose, build on, or in any other way improve the said land as he wishes. To hold to him, his heirs or assigns, of me and my heirs, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly yo me a penny for all secular services. And I, William, will warrant.

Witnesses:- Roger Tempest, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, John de Percy, Alan de Horton, William Tempest, Hugh Clerk of Rymington, William son of Walter of the same place, William Baudewin, William Clerk.

\ If this land started at the stones of Twizles Bridge on Rimington Lane and went in length to the confluence of Twiston and Ings becks, then it now is part of Wood Farm.*

No 32. Hen. III – Ed. I

William, son of William Clerk of Rymington, grants to Walter son of Phillip de Rymington, for his homage and service, a bovate and a half of land, with toft and croft, in the town and territory of Rymington, viz., that bovate and a half of land which lies next the half carucate of land of the said Walter on the west. To hold to him, his heirs and assigns, of William, in fee and heredity, doing as much foreign service as pertains to a bovate and a half of land, where twelve carucates of land make a knight's fee, for all services. And William warrants.

Witnesses:- Robert de Percy of Neusum, Richard son of Richard de Boulton, Walter de Montealto, Alan de Horton, Peter his brother, Hugh Clerk of Rymington, Walter son of Walter of the same place, Adam son of Elyas, William son of John Baldewin, Ysaac son of John, Walter de Gasegile.

No 33. Hen.III – Ed. I

Elyas de Halton and Matilda his wife grabt to Walter son of Phillip de Rimington a bovate of land, with a toft and croft and all appurtenances, in the town and territory of Rimington, viz., that bovate which they previously held of Walter for their homage and service. To hold to him, his heirs or assigns, of William de Rymington and his heirs, who is the chief lord of that tenement, by paying an arrow yearly at Pentecost for every service, except foreign service, viz., as much as pertains to a bovate of land where twelve carucates of land make a knight's fee. And Elyas and Matilda warrant. For this grant Walter has paid them five marks in their necessity.

Witnesses:- Dominus John de Knol, parson of the church of Gyselburne, Robert de Halton, Walter de Montealto, Robert d Percy of Neusem, Elyas de Oterburne, Elyas de Pathenhal, Alan de Horton, William de Rymington, Hugh clerk of the same place, William son of Walter of the same place, Richard Scot, Walter de Gasegil, Adam son of Elyas de Rymington, Ysaac son of John.

No 34. Early Ed. I

Richard Scot grants to Matilda his daughter one of his two bovates of land in which he dwells in the town of Rymington, with all the appurtenances except the toft and croft, viz.: that bovate which lies entirely in the fields, next [to] the bovates of Walter son of Phyllipp de Rymington on the west. And besides this all his land which lies between the wood of Heseleved and the meadow of Greystone. To hold to Matilda, her heirs or assigns, of Richard, for her homage and service, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly a penny for every service except foreign service, viz.: as much as pertains to a bovate, where twelve bovates [written in error for carucates] of land make a knight's fee. And Richard warrants.

Witnesses:- Robert de Percy, William de Rymington, Walter son of Phyllipp of the same place, Hugh Clerk of the same place, William son of Walter of the same place, Adam son of Elyas, Ysaac son of John, William Baldewyn.

No 35. Early Ed. I

Know all present that I, Richard son of Benedict de Holegile, have granted to Walter son of Phillipp de Rimington all my part, without any withholding, of the toft and croft which was Benedict's, my father, in the town of Holegile, which I had by the gift of the said Benedict, and lies towards the west. And besides this all my part, viz., half of the land and meadow which were Benedict's, my father, in a certain culture which is called Aldhekergardt, in the field of Rimington; as the charter which I had by the gift of the said Benedict, my father, of the said tenement purports and witnesses. To hold to him and his heirs or assigns, of the Church of St. Mary of Giselburne in Cravene and of its Rectors, in fee and heredity, paying them three pence yearly for all services. And I, Richard, will warrant to the said Walter and those holding of the said Church.

Witnesses:- Robert de Percy, Walter de Montealto, Elyas de Oterburne, Adam de Westby, Richard Scot of Rimington, William son of Walter of the same place, Ysaac son of John of the same place, Robert the smith of Holegile, Robert son of Walter of the same place, Walter de Gasegile, William son of Roger of the same place.

No 36. Early Ed. I

Know all present and future that I, Richard son of Benedict de Holegile, have granted and confirmed in my full age and power, to Walter son of Phillipp de Rymington, all my part, without any withholding, viz.: half of the toft and croft which was Benedict's, my father, in the town of Holegile, and lies towards the west. And besides this all my part, viz., half of the land and meadow which were Benedict's, my father, in a certain culture which is called Aldhekergard, in the field of Rimington. To hold to Walter, his heirs or assigns, as is contained in the charter which he had before by my gift of the said tenement.

Witnesses:- Dominus John de Knol Rector of the Church of Giselburne, Robert de Percy of Neusum, John his son, Alan de Horton, William Tempest, Hugh clerk of Rimington, William son of Walter of the same place, Adam son of Elyas, William Baldwin, William clerk.

No 37. Early Ed. I

Know all present and future that I, Walter son of Benedict de Hologile, have granted to Walter son of Phillip de Rymington all my part of a toft which was Benedict's, my father, in the town of Hologile, viz.: the half which lies towards the east next [to] the toft which Walter the Smith once held. And besides this all the half of a plot of land, with a meadow at either end towards the east, in a certain culture which is called Aldhekergardt, in the field of Rimington, which Benedict my father had by the gift of Adam de Lelay. To hold to him, his heirs or assigns, of the Church of St. Mary of Giselburne in Cravene an of its Rectors, in pure and perpetual alms, in fee and heredity, for three pence yearly, o be paid at Penecost, and half at the feast of St. Martin for all secular services. And I, Walter, will warrant to Walter and his assigns holding of the church. as is contained in the charter which he had before by my gift of the said tenement.

Witnesses:- William de Rimington, Alan de Horton, Hugh Clerk of Rimington, Richard Scot, Adam son of Elyas of Rimington, Adam de Hologile, Robert son of the Chaplin, Robert the Smith, Walter de Gasegile, Robert son of Walter of the same place.

No 38. Early Ed I.

Walter de Gasegile quitclaims to Hugh de Bolton, son of Richard de Bolton, and his heirs and assigns, his right in all that arable land with meadow in a culture called Aldeherthe and Alderthehege in Gasegille; and in 4d rent which the said Hugh is wont to pay him yearly.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, William de Rouchester, Walter de Rymington, William Gilemyn of the same place, William Tempest of Midop, William son of Eddy of Gasegile.

No 39 Early Ed I

Robert son of Walter de Gasegile quitclaims to Hugh de Boulton and his heirs or assigns, his right in all his (Robert's) land in a culture called le Staniflat in the territory of Gasegile.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, Walter de Rymington, William Gillemyrn of the same place, Hugh clerk of the same place, Alan de Horton, Symon de Pathenale, Stephen de Neusum.

No 40 1276

Robert son of Robert de Gaisgile, quitclaims to Hugh son of Richard de Bouhilton, and his heirs or assigns, for strips of arable land in Lathebot, with a meadow at the east head, lying between the lands of the said Hugh and of Walter de Gasegile; and four strips of arable land in Bradeheudes lying between the lands of the said Hugh and Walter, viz:- those strips which Agnes wife of Robert the Smith of Hologil held of the Grantor.

Witnesses:- John son of Richard de Bouhilton, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, William son of William Clerk of Rimyngton, Alan de Horton, William Gilemyn of Rymington, William Baudevin of the same place.

No 41 Early Ed. I

Robert son of Robert de Gaisgile, quitclaims to Hugh son of Richard de Bolton, his heirs or assigns, his right in all the arable land lying between Mousegilebanke on the east, and the head of the land of Otercroft on the west; part of a bovate of land in the territory of Gasegile, abutting on the one head on Quitelandesike, and on the other head on Brerilands and Aldeherthe; and in three rods of land lying in the croft of Robert son of Eddy de Gasegile; and in two strips lying in le Avenam; and in all the same meadow, part of the said bovate of land, in all places of the field of Gasegile.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, William de Roucester, Walter de Rymington, William Gilemyn of the same place, Alan de Horton, William Tempest de Midhop, William son of Eddy.

No 42 Early Ed. I

Robert son of Eddy of Gasegile quitclaims to Hugh son of Richard de Bouhilton and his heirs or assigns all his right in the arable land and meadow which he once held in fee and heridty of the said Hugh in the territory of Gasegile. Also he grants to the said Hugh the yearly rent of a candle, to be received from William son of Eddy of Gasegile and his heirs, on account of a tenement he formerly held of the said Robert.

Witnesses:- William de Roucester, Walter de Rymington, William Gilemyn of the same place, Hugh of the same place, clerk, Alan de Horton, Stephen de Neusum.

No 43 Early Ed. I

William son of Margery de Gasegyle grants to Hugh de Bouhylton and his heirs or assigns, allhis right in an acre and a rod of land, and a toft with a building in the town of Gasegyle, for a sum of money.

Witnesses:- John de Bouhylton, Walter de Rimington, Henry, Robert de Bouhylton, brothers, Alan de Horton, William de Roucester, William de Rymington.

No 44 Early Ed. I

Know all, etc., that I, William son of William Clerk of Rymington, have granted to William de Roucester and Elyzabet his wife, and the heirs or assigns of William de Roucester, two acres of arable land and road in the territory of Rymington, lying between the land of Henry my son towards the east, and my land towards the west; abutting at the one head on a ditch and at the other head on the said road; and the said road measures eighteen feet in width, and abuts lengthways on the King's way, and at the other head on the said arable land. To hold to him and Elyzabet his wife and the heirs or assigns of the said William de Roucester, of me, in fee and heredity, paying me yearly an arrow for all secular services. And I, William son of William, will warrant, etc.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, Walter de Rymington, William Gilemyn of the same place, Hugh of the same place, Clerk, John son of Ysac of the same place, William Baudewyn of the same place, Robert de Raynevile.

No 45 Early Ed I

William, son of William Clerk of Rymington, quitclaims to William de Roucester and his heirs or assigns the homage and service of William son of John Baudevyn of Rymington.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, Walter de Rymington, Hugh of the same place, Clerk, William Gilemyn of the same place, John son of Adam of the same place, John son of Isac of the same place.

No 46 Early Ed. I

Know present and future that I, William, son and heir of William Clerk of Rimington, have granted to Hugh de Bouhilton, son of Richard de Bouhilton, for his homage an service, all the land which I had within the bounds of Gasegile, except Otercroft and the meadow of Otercroft, with all the liberties within those bounds, extending in length from the water of Gasegile next [to] the chapel to Lathbote, and in width from the old course of the same water of Gasegile on the south to the land of Robert the smith of Holegile which is called Stanes, lying next [to] the meadow of Otercroft towards the north and the meadow which Matlida, widow, of Derwent once held, lying at the head of Rauebotes, viz., four bovates of land, of which one is in the territory of Rymington, which Richard Scot held, and three bovates of land are in Gasegile, of which Robert the Smith of Holegile held one bovate of land, and Richard, son of Alan de Gasegile held another bovate of land and a half, and William son of Walter de Gasegile held half a bovate; and all the arable land which is called Raubotes; and all the land which I had in le Lathebote; and a plot in le Avenam; and a certain assart which Robert the smith of Hologile held next [to] Martintoftes; and also all the land which William brother of Walter de Gasegile held between le Brec of Water and the high road in length, and all the land in width to the water in Dancerholm; and a toft and croft which William Scissor held with Kokeriding and Stanes; and the toft which Walter Note held; and Staincroft; and three acres of land in Martintoftes with the Crokes of Elebeck which William Scissor held; and all my part which I had in le Rede at the head of Soleberg; and the yearly rent, homage and service of these men, viz., from Robert son of Eddy twelve pence at Pentecost, and from Margery, widow, of Gasegile four pence, i.e., half at Pentecost and half at Martinmas, and from Richard de Dounnum a pair of gloves or a penny at Martinmas, and from Robert son of Robert son of Walter de Gasegile an arrow at Pentecost. To hold to Hugh, his heirs or assigns, of me and my heirs or assigns, doing so much foreign service as pertains to so much land in Gasegile. And I, William, will warrant. Witnesses:- Dominus Elyas de Knoll, Dominus Thomas de Altaripa, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, Walter son of Philip de Rymington, Hugh clerk of the same place, Walter de Montealto, Richard de Bouhilton, Henry and Robert his brothers.

[The chapel of Gasegill was dedicated to St. Helen.]

No 47 Early Ed. I

William, son of William Clerk of Rymyngton, grants to Hugh son of Richard de Bouhilton, for his homage and service, all his land in Mickelthystleberg which Elias de Soleberg once held of him. To hold to Hugh, his heirs or assigns, of William, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly to William one penny for all secular services. And William warrants. Witnesses:- Dominus Elyas de Knoll, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, Alan de Horton, Elias de Pathenale, John de Neusum, William de Malasis, and Adam his brother.

No 48 30 March 1277

To all, etc. Know that I, William son of William Clerk of Rymyngton, have granted to Hugh de Bouhilton, son of Richard de Bouhilton, for his homage and service, a culture of land which is called Langelands, which Adam Boterberde holds to farm of the said Hugh; and two acres of land lying next [to] Selegile; and all my meadow lying between the said two acres of land and Selegile which Elias de Soleberg and Walter Note formerly held of me. To hold to him, his heirs or assigns, of me and my heirs or assigns, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly to me six pence for all the lands and tenements which they may hold of me and my heirs, as is contained in their other charters by which they were enfeoffed and seized by me; and doing foreign service. And I, William, will warrant. Witnesses:- Dominus Elyas Knol, Roger Tempest, John son of Richard de Bouhilton, Richard de Halton, Robert his brother, Richard de Bouhilton, Elyas de Oterburn, Elyas de Pathenale, William Gillemyn of Rymyngton.

No 49 Early Ed. I

William, son of William Clerk of Rymyngton, grants to Hugh de Bouhilton, son of Richard de Bouhilton, six and a half acres of land in the territory of Rymyngton, of which four acres lie at le Tuysells and at le Tuyselot and at le Heselhefuede and at le Hoyline next [to] Suannisside, and two acres and a half lie at Helxishou. To hold to Hugh, in fee and heredity, of William, paying him yearly one penny for all secular services. And William warrants. Witnesses:- Roger Tempest, William de Roucester, Walter de Rymyngton, Alan de Horton, Eddemund of the same place, Elyas de Pathenale, Symon his son, William Gillemyn of Rymyngton.

No 50 Early Ed. I

To all, etc., greeting. Know that I, William de Rimyngton, have confirmed to Hugh, son of Richard de Bolton, his heirs or assigns, all the land and tenement which he, Hugh, had by my gift within the bounds of Gasegile and Rimyngton, with rents, viz., Otercroft with the meadow of Otercroft, and with a meadow which Matilda de Derewent once held. Besides four bovates of land, of which one is in the territory of Rymington, which Richard Scot held, and three bovates of land are in Gasegile, of which Robert the Smith of Hologile held one bovat, and Richard son of Alan de Gasegile held another bovat of land and a half, and William son of Walter de Gasegile held half a bovat; and all the arable land which is called Rawebuttes; and all the land which I had in Lathebot; and a plot of land in le Havenam; and a certain assart which Robert the Smith of Hologile held, next [to] Martintoftes; and all the land which William brother of Walter de Gasegile held in le Brek from the water to the high road in length, and all the land in width to the water in Dancerholm; and a toft and croft which William Cissor held with Kockeriding and le Stanes; and a toft which Walter Note held; and Staincroft; and three acres of land in Martintoftes with the Crokis of Elebeck which William Cissor held; and all my part which I had in le Reed at the head of Solebergh; and all the rents and all the homage and service of the men who formerly held of me in Gasegile, as is more fully contained in the charters which Hugh has; and six acres of land and a half lying in the territory of Rimyngton, of which four acres lie at le Twysel and two and a half acres at Elfhou; and four acres of land in the territory of Rimyngton, viz., at Downnumwra; and three bovates of meadow lying in the territory of that town; besides all my carucates of land lying in a certain culture called Walterfald in the same territory of the same town; and two acres of arable land lying within the bounds of Rimyngton, viz., le Havenam; and all my meadow in le Havenam in the territory of the same town; and all my land as it lies in length and width between the ash trees of the Chapel of Gasegil and the pond of Rimyngton mill; and all my land lying in Mikelthysterbergh which Elyas de Soleberg held of me; and two acres and a half of land lying in Sandilandes in the territory of Rimyngton; and a culture which is called le Milnehou lying in length between the high road and the ditch of the monks of Sallay; and a culture which is called Langelands; and two acres of land lying next [to] Selegile; and all my meadow lying between the said two acres of land and Selegile; and all my meadow which I had in Crossmire; and all my meadow which I had in Milnesdike; and two acres of land in the territory of Rimington lying above Elfhou between the land of the Abbat of Sallay and the land of William de Roucester, as the charters which Hugh therefor has fully shown. And know that I, the said William de Rimyngton, have released and quitclaimed to the said Hugh the rent of eighteen pence which he used to pay me for lands which he bought from me, as it is manifest in his charters, for a certain sum of money which the said Hugh gave me in hand in my great necessity, This release of all the lands, tenements, meadows, moors, pastures and all other things, I have made as is more fully contained in the charters of the said Hugh, saving to me the foreign service of that tenement, as much as is due.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, William de Roucester, Walter son of Philipp de Rimyngton, Alan de Horton, Edemund Mancel of the same place, William Gilemin of Rimyngton.

[The chapel of Gasegill was dedicated to St. Helen.]

No 51. Early Ed. I

To all, etc., Alan de Horton greeting, Know that I have granted to Hugh son of Richard de Bouhilton all my meadow lying in two parts in le broces without any withholding, viz., that meadow which Adam son of Walter de Hologile and Eve his wife once held of me. To hold of me in fee and heredity to him and his heirs or assigns, paying to me yearly a barbed arrow for all secular services. And I, Alan, will warrant.

Witnesses: Dominus Elyas de Knol, John son of Richard de Bouhilton, Walter de Rimyngton, Richard son of Richard de Bouhilton, William son of William Clerk of Rimyngton, Elyas de Pathenale, William Gilmyn.

No 52. Early Ed I

William Gilemyng of Rymyngton grants to Hugh son of Richard de Bouhilton all his arable land with meadow lying at Grayhestan next [to] Arnaldebighing abutting Elebec towards the south, and all his land lying above Litlethistelbergh, abutting on one head on Elebec towards the east, and on the other head on le Houh towards the west. To hold to Hugh, his heirs or assigns, of William, in fee and heredity, paying therefor yearly one penny for all secular services. And William warrants.

Witnesses:- Dominus Roger Tempest, William de Roucester, Walter de Rymyngton, Alan de Horton, Hugh de Rymyngton, clerk, William Baudevyn of the same place, William son of Eddy of Gasegile.

No 53. Circa 1280

John son of Ysaac de Rymyngton grants to Alan de Boulton all the land pertaining to his (John's) half carucate above Littelthistelberch, lying between the land of William de Roucester and the land of Robert de Rimyngton called Busselland; and all the land pertaining to his half carucate at Chapelbuttes, lying between the land of the said Robert de Rimyngton on the one part and Chapelsti on the other; and all the land pertaining to his half carucate above le Liddewatebuttes, lying between the land of William de Roucester and the land of the said Robert de Rimyngton called Busselland. To hold to Alan, his heirs or assigns, of John, paying therefor yearly a rose for every secular service. And John warrants.

Witnesses:- William de Roucester, Walter de Rimyngton, Henry his son, Hugh clerk of the same place, Eadmond Maunsel of Horton, John de Panehal, William Gilmine.

No 54. Circa 1280

John son of Isac de Rymyngton grants to Walter de Rymyngton a bovate of land in the town of Rymyngton of [his] half carucate in that town, viz., that bovate which lies towards the east. And besides he grants to the said Walter all his land lying in a certain culture called Halfhou, and all his land lying in a certain culture called Heselheued, and all his meadow of Hundekelde belonging to his said half carucate in that town. To hold to Walter, his heirs or assigns, of his, John's, chief lord, doing as much foreign service as pertains to one bovate of land, where twelve carucates make a knight's fee, for all secular services. And John warrants.

Witnesses:- William de Roucester, John de Boulton, Alan de Boulton, Alan de Horton, John his son, Symon de Pathenale, John his brother, William Gilmyn of Rymyngton, William Baudewyn.

No 55. Circa 1280

William Clerk son of Isac clerk of Remyngton grants to Alan son of Rekard de Bolton a plot of land in the territory of Remyngton, viz., as much as pertains to twelve bovates of land in le Buttis, which formerly were the twelve bovates of William Gilmin, at the upper heads of the crofts of William de Remyngton, one head extending towards the north, and the other at Lidiatsteyel towards the south; and a strip of land which formerly belong to his, William's, bovate, lying between the two bovates of William de Roucester, one head extending above the croft of the said William de Remyngton towards the north and the other at the common pasture towards the south. To hold to Alan, his heirs or assigns, of the church of St Mary of Gisburn in Craven and of its rectors, paying therefor yearly to the said church a rose for every secular service. And William warrants.

Witnesses:- Walter son of Philipp de Remington, William Tempest, Hugh doctor of the same place, Henery de Boulton, John son of Isac.