

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—A service to the memory of L./Ac Fred D. Holden, of "Kelrydding," Rimington, who died in a Middle East hospital, was held in the Memorial Institute on Sunday evening. The esteem in which "Freddie" was held was manifest, as practically every family in the village was represented. The service was conducted by the Vicar of Gisburn (Rev. Bamford-Jones), who paid tribute to one who had been so generally popular. There were special prayers and hymns, including "O Valiant Hearts." At the close, a number of floral tributes were laid at the base of the memorial tablet in the Institute.
